Sconestone at Baldragon

Pupils from Downfield Primary and Baldragon Academy have taken part in the Sconestone initiative as part of the Year of Homecoming.

The stone, which was launched at Runrig's weekend concert at Scone, is travelling the country on a 'Journey of Kindness'. People who touch the stone are asked to carry out an act to make the world a better place.

Arrangements were made for the stone to come to Baldragon Academy by the Rev. Dr. Scott Shackleton from Downfield South Church. The Rev. Shackleton has links with the first 'keeper' of the stone, the Rev. Neil Galbraith of Glasgow.

Pupils from both Downfield Primary and the secondary got a chance to see the stone and put forward pledges for their acts of kindness.

Dundee City Council depute education convener Cllr Stewart Hunter attended a special assembly to mark the Sconestone initiative.

He said: "This is an imaginative way of celebrating Scottish culture and also helping children and young people to think of others and carry out an act of kindness.

"It is very exciting to see the Sconestone arriving in Dundee so soon after its launch."
